Ivey Ranch Park Association

Thank you Tri-City Christian School!

The kids from Tri-City Christian School came out to Ivey Ranch and helped with several beautification projects. Thank you for the wonderful work you did!

Check out these amazing kids in action:

Thank you to the dedicated students from Cal State San Marcos who came out on Cesar Chavez day. Every year the ROTC and other CSUSM students, facilitated by Mrs. Laurie Schmelzer, come out to Ivey Ranch to help. This year they conquered the weeds, painted ground poles for our lessons, and spruced up the Sensory Track.

Thank you all for the terrific work you did for us!

Welcome Amy Sheets!

Meet our newest instructor in our therapy program:

Amy Sheets is a PATH Intl. Master Level Instructor and Lead Faculty/Evaluator for Registered, Advanced, and Master level certifications. She has over 25 years of experience teaching therapeutic riding, is a past committee chair of the PATH Intl. Riding Instructor Certification Sub-Committee, and has conducted workshops and instructor certifications across the United States and in Israel. Her equestrian background includes hunter/jumper, dressage, western pleasure, western trail, and cowboy challenge.

Quote from Amy: "I am thrilled to be a part of the Ivey Ranch team. The work environment is open and friendly and joyful! I feel like I have come home - teaching riders with special needs is truly where my heart is."
